Sir,

Ayurveda, the traditional medical practice system of India has deep rooted in the society and its health care practices, has greatly contributed during this pandemic period. Ministry of Ayush has acted swiftly in delivering the health care facilities and the preventive and curative benefits to the public. Vaccines are available to adult population, our children are said to be more prone to infections in the current phase. Looking into the need of protecting children, Ministry of Ayush has released guidelines for children care through Ayurveda.

All India Institute of Ayurveda following these guidelines, has developed a comprehensive immunity boosting kit especially for children of the age between 01 Year to 16 years with the name of "Bala Raksha Kit". It comprises of four units, chyavanprash Avaleha (one bottle of 180 gm), Syrup Ayush Bala Kwatha (3 bottles of 100 mlx3), one bottle of Samshamani Vati (120 tabs) and a bottle of Anu Taila, the cartoon box has description of how to use these items too, the course is minimum ONE-month duration.

Your esteemed organization is running a number of children centric activities in schools and around your area. As per letter request received from CHAITANYA AYURVED MAHAVIDYALAYA to distribute about 3000 kits among children of Maharashtra for the health benefits of them, we are ready to issues the same. For record of the same, we have developed a simple and user-friendly Mobile application in which the details of the child along with his/ her health status are to be recorded, and this is to be repeated after completion of due course. It is available on google Play store.

So, we are sending 3000 kits from AIIA and take part in this noble mission of protecting our children from the pandemic of COVID and other opportunistic infections and to boost their immunity and health, you may please contact the under signed for further details; your esteemed participation will immensely help in our mission of Swastha Bharath.

Consignment has no commercial value.

Kindly do the needful in joining hands with our mission.

Thanking you,

Your Faithfully
